ENGLISH (ENG)

The English program at Western Colorado University provides its majors an opportunity to study language, literature, writing, and secondary teaching. Upon graduation, English majors can:

• employ multiple perspectives in producing and analyzing texts;
• employ a critical, historical, and cultural sense of the traditions of English, American, and world literatures;
• generate and develop an effective writing project in at least one genre. Those in the Comprehensive Program with the writing emphasis can also:
  • generate and develop effective writing projects in a variety of genres for a variety of writing occasions;
  • locate appropriate venues for their writing and submit compatible work for publication.

Those in the Comprehensive Program with secondary education licensure can also be licensed to teach literature and writing in secondary schools in Colorado.

English Assessment Program

All English majors and minors are required to participate in and successfully pass skills/knowledge assessment testing in English. Assessment tests are conducted thus:

1. as a component of the required course ENG 250 Critical Approaches to Literature;
2. as a designated semester project in the Junior Seminar, or a designated project in ENG 405 Advanced Writing (writing emphasis); and
3. a final graduation requirement incorporated into ENG 494 Senior Seminar: Studies in: Planning Ahead.

Program Goals

• employ multiple perspectives in producing and analyzing texts;

English Courses

ENG 099. Basic Writing. (3 Credits)
Provides students with practice in generating and developing writing about academic topics and preparation for ENG 102 Academic Writing. For students who do not meet the College Level Entry Standards set by the Colorado Commission on Higher Education. Credit does not count toward graduation. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory only.

ENG 100. Supplemental Academic Writing. (1 Credit)
Provides co-requisite, supplemental instruction for students enrolled in ENG 102. Students will practice employing rhetorical knowledge; using writing processes; developing critical reading and writing strategies; and using effective written communication to demonstrate comprehension of content knowledge. Course Placement Guideline: Students with a cumulative high school or transfer GPA of 2.74 or lower will be placed in this ENG SAI course for additional support and development. Co-requisite ENG 102. Note: this course is intended for those qualified students wanting to complete the Supplemental Academic Instruction (SAI) program in English.

ENG 102. Academic Writing (GT-CO1). (3 Credits)
Provides students the opportunity to practice strategies for developing writing projects on unfamiliar topics in unfamiliar formats to become more effective and efficient writers. Writers learn to practice strategies for making writing more comprehensible for readers and to use a wide range of writing processes for getting started, developing, organizing, and polishing writing projects. Prerequisites (one of the following): ENG 099; a high school or university transfer GPA of 2.75 or higher; or co-requisite ENG 100 (SAI). GT-CO1

ENG 148. Film and Culture. (3 Credits)
A focus on the development of film and its cultural impact, with special emphasis on the relationship between film as a visual medium and literature as a verbal medium. After examining a selection of short stories and novels and the film adaptations based upon them, students are given the opportunity to write some film analysis of their own.
ENG 150. Introduction to Literature (GT-AH2). (3 Credits)
An introduction to literature with focus on a specific theme, form, or topic. Prerequisites (one of the following): ENG 099; a high school or university transfer GPA of 2.75 or higher; or co-requisite ENG 100. Open only to first and second-year students who have completed fewer than 60 credits. GT-AH2

ENG 151. Borderlands: Representing Race, Class, Gender, and Sexuality. (3 Credits)
A focus on literature representing literal and metaphorical borders and crossings. Students examine how culture and ideology inform representations of the interconnections among race, class, and gender. Examples include literatures of migration, mixed identities, and racial, gender, and sexual crossings. Prerequisite or Co-requisite: ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C; or instructor permission.

ENG 152. Women and Literature. (3 Credits)
Critical study of selected topics, themes, or issues about women as they are interpreted in popular and classic literary works. Specific titles to be announced each time the course is offered. Prerequisite or Co-requisite: ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C; or instructor permission.

ENG 153. Literary Culture of the American West. (3 Credits)
A study of traditional and nontraditional forms of Western literature. Specific titles to be announced each time the course is offered. Prerequisite or Co-requisite: ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C; or instructor permission.

ENG 154. Popular Genre Fiction: Topic Variable. (3 Credits)
A focus on works that adhere to a specific popular genre announced on a rotating basis and selected from such sub-genres as science fiction, fantasy, mysteries, romance, westerns, or horror. Readings explore the relationship of genre tropes to the craft of storytelling. Course may be repeated for credit when taken with a different emphasis. Prerequisite or Co-requisite: ENG 102 with a minimum grade of C; or instructor permission.
